

EMERALD CITY COMPUTER SOLUTIONS, INC.

How to modify a firewall rule for a Web-enabled program in Norton Internet Security 2008

STEP 1 Print this page

STEP 2 Modifying a firewall rule for Web-enabled program

- 1 Start Norton Internet Security.
- 2 Click the Norton Internet Security tab.
- 3 Click Settings.
- 4 Under Web Browsing, click Personal Firewall > Configure.
- 5 Under Personal Firewall in left pane, click Program Control.
- 6 Click Configure.
- 7 In the Program Column, select the program that you would like to modify and click Modify.
- 8 In the Program Rules window, select the rule that you would like to change.

- 9 Click Modify.
- 10 In the Modify Rule window, make necessary changes that you would like to do.
- 11 When you have finished changing the rule, click OK.
- 12 In the Program Rules window, click OK.
- 13 Click Apply > OK.
In the Program Rules window, click OK.
When you have finished changing the rule, click OK.
In the Modify Rule window, make necessary changes that you would like to do.
Click Modify.
In the Program Rules window, select the rule that you would like to change.
In the Program Column, select the program that you would like to modify and click Modify.
Click Configure.

Under Personal Firewall in left pane, click Program Control.

Under Web Browsing, click Personal Firewall > Configure.

Click Settings.

Click the Norton Internet Security tab.

Start Norton Internet Security.